'Mars in Marriage' Analysis

Mars – The Planet

This red and fiery planet is the commander-in-chief of the army of the gods. In a horoscope he is the significator of valour, real estate, strength, brother, fire and security. He is a mature young man and rules the southern direction. His preferred colour is red and his chosen gem is red coral. He is not counted amongst the handsome and is slightly hunchbacked. He also rules the blood-related ailments, the marrow and the bile. He controls the menstrual cycle of women and an individual's sexual drive and potency depend on the strength and position of Mars. He is notorious for creating all kinds of marital problems (including early death of spouse, dependent however on the configuration of other planets) if positioned in certain houses from the Ascendant.

The Manglik Affliction of Mars

The terminology Manglik is ascribed to individuals afflicted by the position of Mars in their birth- chart in specific houses. This causes some traits, the common factor being to cause delay in one's marriage & affecting happiness in marital life. It does not affect the individual in any other aspect of life but does affect relationships all around with friends, near & dear ones in family and specifically one's spouse. In such situations, marriage to another Manglik can be the redeeming factor as the evil afflictions can get neutralized. If the spouse is also a Manglik, there is not much problem. Otherwise, Mars can cause all kinds of marital problems, including use of harsh words and breakdown of understanding. The affliction may also affect the brother of the Manglik, particular younger brother/s, if any.

While Mars posited in the 4th and 12th houses means ordinary dosha, it can be moderately severe in the 1st but in the 7th and 8th, it is grave and much greater. In the worst case, in the 7th, it can induce bad characteristics in the spouse and can affect the longevity of the spouse, while in the 8th, it is termed as 'maraka' for the spouse, implying possible death besides begetting less children.

Mars's Position in two charts

In the natal chart of XYZ, Mars is posited in the 10th house in its own sign Aries where as in the Moon chart, Mars is posited in the 5th house and in the Navamsha chart (the 9th harmonic chart), Mars is posited in the 10th house. Therefore, as per the above planetary placement, XYZ has a non Manglik horoscope and he could be able to enjoy good romantic pleasure in his life.

However, in the birth chart of ABC, planet Mars is posited in the ascendant where as in the Moon chart, Mars is posited in the 5th house and in the Navamsha Chart (the 9th harmonic chart), it is posited in the 3rd house. Hence, the above position of Mars signifies that ABC has a Manglik horoscope. It could create problems in the proper enjoyment of romantic pleasure and marital aspects of life.

Therefore, according to Martian Dynamics, the compatibility between the two natal charts cannot be said very favourable with respect to leading a happy and long lasting relationship with each other. Since the position of Mars in the birth chart of ABC is quite strong, so she may try to play a dominating role in the relationship and the position of Mars and other planetary placements in the birth chart of XYZ could not be able to neutralise the bad impact of her Mars. Therefore, in such a situation, forming a long term relationship together cannot be said a happy and long lasting relationship.

Mars's effect in respective houses in individual chart

In XYZ's natal chart, Mars is the lord of the 5th house as well as house of profession and it is situated in the own sign in house of profession only. Therefore, it could give him good rise and success in professional life and would also provide proper enjoyment of romance and married life. However, it could create certain issues to enjoy a cordial relationship with children.

In the natal chart of ABC's, Mars is the lord of 2nd house as well as house of marriage and it is situated in the ascendant. Therefore, it could give her a bold personality and she could be able to face challenges in life in better way, but this position of Mars cannot be said very supportive with respect to enjoyment of romance and married life.

Effect of Mars in respective signs

Mars is in the zodiac sign Libra in ABC's birth chart, which is the sign of Venus and planet Venus and Mars are sharing a Friendly relationship with each other. So it could be able to give her its best and favourable results in its related areas of her life.

However, in XYZ's natal chart, Mars is in the zodiac sign Aries, which is its own sign so definitely he could experience very supportive role of Mars in its related areas of his life.

The conclusion of the above analysis wherein we have discussed the role of Mars in the two natal charts in context of long term relationship and possibility of marriage between two of you, it can be said an average level favourable with respect to longevity and enjoyment of romance life. The position of planet Mars in the birth chart of ABC is making her Manglik, where she might try to play a dominating role in this relationship. However, the planetary placement in the natal chart of XYZ could not be able to neutralise the Manglik influence in her birth chart. Therefore, considering the overall positioning of planet Mars and other planets in both the birth charts and their role with respect to future of this relationship, we cannot expect a long term and happy relationship with each other.

Nakshatra Milapak-Summary

According to the Nakshatra Melapak of the two natal charts, you have scored only 16 points out of the total compatibility score of 36, which is referred a low score with respect to a happy and long lasting relationship. Even then, some of tests in nakshatra Melapak has scored very well, which indicates sharing of a joyful and blissful romantic relationship with each other.

The two natal charts have not scored well in the Nadi Melapak test. It does not indicate having progeny bliss between two of you and the level of intimacy could be also on lower side. However, the Bhakut Melapak score is very high. So, there could be good cooperation on financial issues, but both might try to have own financial independent. The score of Gana Melapak is not good so it indicates certain issues on ideological and behavioural grounds so, both should try to respect the views and opinions of each other's where you may face problem in routine life. The score of Graha maitry Melapak is also not good so it indicates differences on principle issues. However, the score of Yoni Melapak is very high, which indicates compatibly and satisfaction in sexual relationship hence, the enjoyment of sexual relationship would be very high. Both could take care of each other's need and emotion on sexual front and sexual satisfaction could play as central point of attraction and bound in this relationship.

Comment on your primary concern

Though as per the above explanation, you yourself could be able to know the outcome of this relationship, even then, clearly here I would like to mention that chances are very low for the marriage between two of you. Though you can be able to enjoy a happy romantic relationship especially sexual relationship with each other, but converting same in to married life or to have a long lasting relationship could be a tough task for you.
